EPISTLE: Acts 20:16-18, 28-36

For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he would not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hurrying to be at Jerusalem, if possible, on the Day of Pentecost. From Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called for the elders of the church. And when they had come to him, he said to them: "You know, from the first day that I came to Asia, in what manner I always lived among you. Therefore, take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God which He purchased with His own blood. For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. Also, from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves. Therefore watch, and remember that for three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears. So now, brethren, I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified. I have coveted no one's silver or gold or apparel. Yes, you yourselves know that these hands have provided for my necessities, and for those who were with me. I have shown you in every way, by laboring like this, that you must support the weak. And remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'" And when he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all.

GOSPEL: John 17:1-13

Jesus spoke these words, lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said: "Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son also may glorify You, as You have given Him authority over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as You have given Him. And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent. I have glorified You on the earth. I have finished the work which You have given Me to do. And now, O Father, glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory which I had with You before the world was. I have manifested Your name to the men whom You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours, You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. Now they have known that all things which You have given Me are from You. For I have given to them the words which You have given Me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came forth from You; and they have believed that You sent Me. I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours. And all Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine, and I am glorified in them. Now I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, keep through Your name those whom You have given Me, that they may be one as We are. While I was with them in the world, I kept them in Your name. Those whom You gave Me I have kept; and none of them is lost except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. But now I come to You, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have My joy fulfilled in themselves.

MARKET DAY

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all who prepared the food and served at our first Market Day of the season, Saturday, May 27th. Our special thanks are extended to the following parishioners and friends: Basil, Tim, Tina, Bobbie, Laura, Mimi, Kathy, Natalie, Roddie, David, Jean, Greg, Sue, Ryan, Mat. Michelle, Sebastian, and Jack. May our Lord and God reward you all for your hard work and love for our church, and grant you long life, good health, peace, and happiness for Many Happy and Blessed Years!

OUR SYMPATHIES – MEMORY ETERNAL!

We would like to offer our deepest sympathies to Joe Schutt on passing of his best friend † DAVID A. WARNER, who fell asleep in the Lord last Thursday, May 25th. “In blessed repose grant eternal rest, O Lord, to your ever-remembered servant † DAVID and make his Memory Eternal! Vičnaja Jemu Pamjat!”

SINCERE THANK YOU

We would like to express our sincere thanks to Bobbie, our future Catechumen Angela and Matushka Michelle for weeding, trimming the bushes and planting an herb garden around our church. Our thanks are extended also to Jim Kovach for helping with handyman jobs at the rectory and for fixing the back door in the altar area and hanging the new mirror in the sanctuary. May Our Lord and God bless you and grant you Many Happy and Blessed Years!
