THE WINDOW FROM WHICH WE LOOK

A YOUNG COUPLE MOVES INTO A NEW NEIGHBOURHOOD. THE NEXT MORNING WHILE THEY ARE EATING BREAKFAST, THE YOUNG WOMAN SEES HER NEIGHBOUR HANGING THE WASH OUTSIDE. THAT LAUNDRY IS NOT VERY CLEAN", SHE SAID. "SHE DOESN'T KNOW HOW TO WASH CORRECTLY. PERHAPS SHE NEEDS BETTER SOAP." HER HUSBAND LOOKED ON, BUT REMAINED SILENT. EVERY TIME HER NEIGHBOUR WOULD HANG HER WASH TO DRY, THE YOUNG WOMAN WOULD MAKE THE SAME COMMENTS.

ABOUT ONE MONTH LATER, THE WOMAN WAS SURPRISED TO SEE A NICE CLEAN WASH ON THE LINE AND SAID TO HER HUSBAND: "LOOK, SHE HAS LEARNED HOW TO WASH CORRECTLY. I WONDER WHO TAUGHT HER THIS." THE HUSBAND SAID, "I GOT UP EARLY THIS MORNING AND CLEANED OUR WINDOWS." AND SO IT IS WITH LIFE. WHAT WE SEE WHEN WATCHING OTHERS DEPENDS ON THE PURITY OF THE WINDOW THROUGH WHICH WE LOOK!

Hieromartyr Gregory the Bishop of Greater Armenia, Equal of the Apostles and Enlightener of Armenia
Commemorated on September 30

The Hieromartyr Gregory, Enlightener of Greater Armenia, was born in the year 257. He was descended from the line of the Parthian Arsakid emperors. The father of Saint Gregory, Anak, in striving after the Armenian throne, had murdered his kinsman, the emperor Kursar, in consequence of which all the line of Anak was marked for destruction.

A certain kinsman saved Gregory: he carried off the infant from Armenia to Caesarea in Cappadocia and raised him in the Christian Faith. At maturity, Gregory married, had two sons, but soon was left a widower. Gregory raised his sons in piety. One of them -- Orphanes, afterwards became a priest, and the other -- Arostanes, accepted monasticism and went off into the wilderness.

In order to atone for the sin of his father, who had murdered the father of Tiridates, Gregory entered into the service of the latter and was a faithful servant to him. Tiridates loved Gregory like a friend, but he was intolerant of the Christian confession of faith. After ascending the Armenian throne, he began to demand that Saint Gregory renounce the Christian Faith.

The steadfastness of the saint embittered Tiridates, and he gave his faithful servant over to cruel tortures: they suspended the sufferer head downwards with a stone about his neck, for several days they choked him with a stinking smoke, they beat and ridiculed him, and forced him to walk in iron sandals inset with nails.

At the time of these sufferings Saint Gregory sang Psalms. In prison the Lord healed all his wounds. When Gregory again stood before the emperor cheerful and unharmed, he was astonished and gave orders to repeat the torments. Saint Gregory endured them, not wavering, with all his former determination and bearing. They then poured hot tin over him and threw him into a pit filled with vipers. The Lord, however, saved His chosen one: the snakes did him no harm.

Some pious women fed him with bread, secretly lowering it into the pit. A holy angel, appeared to the martyr, strengthening and encouraging him. Saint Gregory remained in the pit for fourteen years. During this time the emperor Tiridates executed the holy virgin Saint Rhipsime, the aged abbess Gaiana and another 35 virgins from one of the monasteries of Asia Minor. As punishment for this horrible deed, the king's face became disfigured. Saint Gregory was released from the pit, and buried the relics of the holy virgins with honor. Then he began to preach to the people, urging them to turn away from the darkness of idolatry and toward Christ. The people came to believe in Christ, and wished to build a large church. When it was completed, Saint Gregory had the relics of the holy nuns brought into it. Then he brought King Tiridates there before the bodies of the saints whom he had slain. He repented, and immediately his face was made whole once more.

Soon all of Armenia was converted to Christ. The temples of the idols were destroyed, and churches for the worship of the true God were built. Saint Gregory ordained priests, established schools, founded monasteries, and provided for the good order of the Church.

Saint Gregory went into the wilderness, where he departed to the Lord. His son Aristanes was made a bishop in Cappadocia, and was one of the 318 holy Fathers at the Council of Nicea.

2 Corinthians 9:6-11 (Epistle)

But this I say: "He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully." So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work. As it is written: "He has dispersed abroad, He has given to the poor; His righteousness endures forever." Now may He who supplies seed to the sower, and bread for food, supply and multiply the seed you have sown and increase the fruits of your righteousness, while you are enriched in everything for all liberality, which causes thanksgiving through us to God.

Ministry Resources: “Compassion in Action” key to parish visitation ministries

“Compassion in Action” is the title of a newly published article by Deacon Michael Schlaack that describes the step-by-step journey of exploration, spiritual discernment and training taken by the faithful of his home parish—Saint Mary Magdalene Church, Fenton, MI—in pursuing a new model of visitation ministry.

“‘Compassion in Action: Parish Ministry Training’ was developed by the Orthodox Church in America’s Department of Christian Service and Humanitarian Aid [CSHA] and Archpriest Steven Voytovich of the Office of Institutional Chaplaincies as a means of training and mentoring clergy and lay volunteers in a ministry of personal presence,” said Donna Karabin, CSHA Chair. “It is intended to provide empathy, compassion and listening by the faithful to those suffering mentally, emotionally, physically and/or spiritually. Genuine Orthodox Christian care is given to hurting brothers and sisters in the parish or to others in the surrounding local area in homes, hospitals, hospices and social service facilities.”

Saint Mary Magdalene Church served as “Compassion in Action’s” pilot program.

“After three years, Deacon Michael reflects on his experience with the homeless and the need to see them as God’s image-bearers, acknowledging their humanity without judging or trying to ‘fix’ them,” Donna added. “Providing a Christ-like presence to those so often devoid of love has been the objective of Saint Mary Magdalene’s ‘Compassion in Action’ ministry.”

According to Donna, the program is being further developed with the generous financial support from Archpriest John and Popadija Katherine Vitko of Saint Luke Church, McLean, VA. Nancy VanDyken, a member of Saint Anthony the Great Church, Bozeman, MT has been named Director.

The program has been blessed by His Beatitude, Metropolitan Tikhon “for use in the parish setting to aid the faithful of our parish communities to realize their calling to such a ministry of presence.” Metropolitan Tikhon referred to the program in his work, Of What Life Do We Speak? Four Pillars For The Fulfillment Of The Apostolic Work of the Church, which made its debut at the [19th All-American Council.]

It is hoped that the “Compassion in Action” program will be introduced in parishes across the OCA. The article is also available on the new CSHA website and the CSHA Facebook page. Questions and input may be directed to cscha@oca.org.

October 7 designated OCF College Student Sunday

The Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops of the United States of America has designated October 7, 2018 as College Student Sunday, during which parishes are asked to recognize and honor their college students.

“Orthodox Christian Fellowship [OCF] has a mission of reaching out to Orthodox young adults in a way that keeps and strengthens their relationships with Jesus Christ,” said His Grace, Bishop Gregory of Nyssa, OCF’s Episcopal Liaison to the Assembly of Bishops. Encouraging all Orthodox faithful to remember Orthodox young adults as College Student Sunday approaches, he affirmed OCF’s campus mission as “a time of physical, emotional, spiritual, and social challenges. I believe it is important — indeed critical — for the Church to help facilitate as much as possible these young adults finding each other for fellowship and support.”

College Student Sunday also provides an opportunity to take a special collection to support the work of the OCF. It is through such contributions from generous donors nationwide that OCF sustains its network of over 350 on-campus chapters while also providing dynamic programming through district and regional retreats, the annual College Conference, Real Break, and the Summer Leadership Institute.

More information about this year’s College Student Sunday and ways parishes can support OCF’s efforts are available online or by contacting OCF’s National Programs Manager, Donna Levas, at donna@ocf.net or 617-850-1227.

Luke 6:31-36 (Gospel)

And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise. But if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive back, what credit is that to you? For even sinners lend to sinners to receive as much back. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High. For He is kind to the unthankful and evil. Therefore be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful.

STOTS to celebrate 80th Anniversary
October 11-13

Saint Tikhon's Orthodox Theological Seminary [STOTS] will be celebrating its eight decades of spiritually forming and theologically educating the future hierarchs, clergy, and lay leaders of the Orthodox Church with a three-day gala October 11-13, 2018.

The celebration will open on Thursday, October 11 with the celebration of Vespers and Matins in Saint Tikhon of Zadonsk Monastery Church at 4:30 p.m. A reception for the recently appointed Dean, Archpriest John Parker, will follow at 6:30 p.m.

On Friday, October 12, the Symposium, titled "Where Saints Have Walked," will open with the celebration of the Divine Liturgy at 7:00 a.m. followed by a continental breakfast in the seminary dining hall. The morning's presentation, titled "A History of Saint Tikhon's Through Liturgical Artifacts," will be delivered by Archpriest John Perich, Curator of the Monastery's Museum. In the afternoon, Archpriests Daniel Geeza and Eugene Pianovich will offer a presentation titled "Reminiscences of Saint Nikolai of Zhicha." Vespers and Matins will follow in the Monastery Church. At 6:30 p.m., a Grand Banquet will be held at the Hilton Hotel, Scranton, PA.

The Symposium will close on Saturday, October 13, with the celebration of the Hierarchical Divine Liturgy, at which His Beatitude, Metropolitan Tikhon, will preside. Responses will be sung by the Saint Tikhon Alumni Choir under the direction of Archpriest Daniel Kovalak. A brunch will follow in the seminary dining hall.

A banquet reservation form is available online. Deadline for reservations is Monday, October 1.

On behalf of His Eminence, Archbishop Michael, STOTS Rector and Father John Parker, Dean, we sincerely hope that you will come and join us in thanking God for His great blessings, bestowed so richly upon Saint Tikhon's Seminary these past 80 years.
