Metropolitan Tikhon presides at 15th annual Diaconal Liturgical Practicum

For the fifteenth year, the Orthodox Church in America has organized a Diaconal Liturgical Practicum to help in the formation of deacons and their ministry in the life of the Church. Held this year at Saint Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary, the practicum gathered candidates, altar servers, subdeacons, and deacons from nearly every diocese of the Orthodox Church in America and from other jurisdictions. Initiated at the urging of the Holy Synod of Bishops in 2006, the Practicum is a cornerstone of the training of deacons in the Diaconal Vocations Program and other diocesan programs leading to diaconal ordination in the Church.

This year, His Beatitude Metropolitan Tikhon led the participants in reflection, conversation, and especially the Divine Liturgy on the feast of Nativity of the Forerunner of Christ, June 24, 2022, which formally closed the four day event.

This year's Practicum began on Tuesday evening, June 21, with an opening presentation by Archpriest Chad Hatfield, President of Saint Vladimir's Seminary. He spoke on the important topic of "Eucharistic Living and the Diaconate." His engaging talk and question-and-answer session set a serious and evangelistic tone for the remainder of the program with inspiring quotes from former deans of the Seminary Protopresbyter Alexander Schmemmann and Protopresbyter Thomas Hopko.

Each full day began with the celebration of the Divine Liturgy and concluded with Vespers. Archpriest Kirill Sokolov, Director of Diaconal and Late Vocations, led liturgical practice sessions and reflections on the diaconate, especially the manner in which liturgical service at the Eucharist and the diakonia of charitable works are inextricably linked.

Dr. Harrison Russin, Assistant Professor of Liturgical Music, offered sessions on liturgical chanting, singing, and the manner in which deacons use their voices in celebrating the divine services. He also directed the singers during the divine services.

On Wednesday evening, Father Bogdan Bucur, Associate Professor of Patristics, gave an insightful talk reflecting on the scriptures with the theme "Clothed With the Garment of Salvation": Clothing metaphors for the truths of faith."

On the penultimate day of the Practicum, Archpriest Alexander Rentel, Chancellor of the Orthodox Church in America addressed the participants on the life of a clergyman especially in reference to the Lord's promises to the Apostle Paul on the road to Damascus. Following Father Alexander's talk, His Beatitude spoke with the participants and the conversation continued informally into the evening at a reception.

At the Divine Liturgy, Father Chad gave the homily on the meaning of the Holy Forerunner's manner of life and purpose in relation to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. At the conclusion Divine Liturgy, served in the full hierarchical order, Archpriest Kirill Sokolov thanked His Beatitude and spoke about the office of the Metropolitan as an icon of unity in the life of the Church and noted how proper it was to experience that unity on the feast day with all of the participants from across this land. His Beatitude addressed a primatial word to the participants and offered them his blessing in the continuance of their studies. Father Kirill expressed the appreciation of the Practicum participants to the seminary faculty and staff for warm hospitality. A warm fellowship continued over breakfast with questions from the participants and comments by His Beatitude, Father Chad, and Father Kirill.

"This year's participants represented a level of maturity and seriousness in their studies," noted Father Kirill. "I am grateful to God that our parishes and dioceses are raising up candidates for the ministry of deacon," he remarked. "It was encouraging to work with these men and to hear of their devotion to their families, their love of regular church life, and their desire to humbly serve."

The Diaconal Vocations Program (DVP) is a program of theological study providing academic preparation for men who may be called to ordination to the Holy Diaconate but unable to attend a seminary. The DVP is operated under the auspices of the Board of Theological Education of the Holy Synod of Bishops, and is chaired by His Beatitude, Metropolitan Tikhon. Archpriest Kirill Sokolov currently serves as Director of Diaconal and Late Vocations. He can be reached at dvp@oca.org and more information on the DVP can be found on the web site of the Orthodox Church in America at oca.org/dvp.

Martyr Hyacinth of Caesarea, in Cappadocia, and those with him
Commemorated on July 3

Saint Hyacinth, a native of Caesarea in Cappadocia, was raised in a Christian family. The emperor Trajan made the boy his “cubicularius” (chamberlain), unaware that he was a secret Christian.

One day, while the emperor and his entourage were offering sacrifice to idols, the young Hyacinth remained at the palace, shut himself up in a small room, and prayed fervently to the Lord Jesus Christ. One of the servants overheard him praying and denounced him to the emperor. He said that although Hyacinth was entrusted with an imperial position, he did not honor the Roman gods, and was secretly praying to Christ.

Hyacinth was brought to trial before Trajan, who tried to persuade him to deny Christ and sacrifice to the deaf and dumb idols, but the holy martyr remained steadfast and declared that he was a Christian. He was whipped and thrown into prison, where the only food given to him was what had already been offered to the idols. They hoped that he would be overcome with hunger and thirst and eat it. Saint Hyacinth did not eat the food, and he died after thirty-eight days. When they came to torture him again, they found his dead body.

The jailer saw two angels in the cell. One covered the saint’s body with his own garment, and the other placed a crown of glory on his head.

The twelve-year-old Hyacinth suffered for Christ in the year 108 in the city of Rome. Later, the saint’s relics were transferred to Caesarea.

Saints Diomedes, Eulampius, Asclepiodotus, and Golinduc also suffered with Saint Hyacinth.

Matthew 6:22-33 (Gospel)

The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness! No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? Which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature? So why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

Romans 5:1-10 (Epistle)

Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; and perseverance, character; and character, hope. Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us. For when we were still without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die. But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him. For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life.
